THE SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY 23rd and 24th FEBRUARY

ABM Reflection

Jesus says to us today: If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. As Christians we are called by Jesus to show God's love to others. But how? Jesus tells us: Love your enemies. Do good. Lend, expecting nothing in return. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. Do not judge. Do not condemn, Forgive. Give. Today is a good day to make a start.

- Pray that each of us today might pick one of Jesus' commands and begin to incorporate it into our lives, allowing God to shine through us to others.
- Give thanks for Wontulp-Bi-Buya College in Cairns, giving thanks for the educational programs provided to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.

Worship Music Notes for Sunday 24th February
Organist 7:00am Gwen MacKinnon and 9:00am Ros Kay

Our Services begin today with a joyful expression of praise. The hymn “Joyful, joyful, we adore you,” (TIS 152) was written by American Presbyterian minister Henry Van Dyke (1852-1933) to be sung to the well-known melody from the final movement of Beethoven’s 9th Symphony. The “choral” movement of the symphony is itself based on a poem about joy, “Ode an die Freude.” Of his hymn Van Dyke wrote: “These verses are expressions of common Christian feelings...that may be sung by people who are not afraid...that any revolution on earth will not destroy the kingdom of heaven.”

Contemporary British hymn writer, Graham Kendrick (b. 1950) wrote “Beauty for brokenness” (TIS 690) in 1993 for the 25th anniversary of the charity, Tearfund. The hymn was inspired by a visit Kendrick had made to India in 1992, and his perception of the contrast between Indian poverty and Western affluence. He writes: “ I composed this with a concern in mind that the theme of God’s heart for his suffering world should be more prominent in regular worship.”

New Zealand composer Richard Gillard (b.1953) began writing “Brother, sister, let me serve you” (TIS 650) with verse 3 (“I will hold the Christ-light for you ...”) The other verses were to follow later. The hymn speaks of Christian service, and is also a prayer for grace to accept the service from others to ourselves. Richard Gillard writes: “in the back of my mind was the passage in John’s Gospel where Jesus washes the disciples’ feet.”

John Bell (b.1949) and Graham Maule (b.1958) are Scottish hymn-writers and members of the Iona Community in Scotland. The Community began with a concern for the dispossessed and marginalised of the slums of Glasgow, and Bell and Maule have written many challenging, and at times, confronting hymns, including “Inspired by love and anger” (TIS 674,) which reflects themes in today’s Gospel reading. The writers aim to “engage people, to stretch their faith and encourage them to live in a manner that reflects justice.”

Albert F. Bayly (1901-1984) was an English minister and hymn writer in the Congregational (later United Reformed) Church. His hymn, “O Lord of Every Shining Constellation” (TIS 157) was originally entitled “God’s Age-long Plan.” Bayly writes that the hymn was “one attempt to write a hymn which would express a Christian response to life in the twentieth century world, which science and technology have influenced so greatly.”

THE GATHERING OF GOD’S PEOPLE

Today’s sung service setting at 9:00am is ‘Mass of Creation’ by Marty Haugen

INTROIT : At the 9:00am Service, the Choir will sing the Introit

Here in Christ we gather, love of Christ our calling.
Christ, our love, is with us, gladness be his greeting.
Let us love and serve him God of all the ages.
Let us love sincerely, seeing Christ in others.

When we Christians gather, members of one Body,
Christ, our head, is with us, loving and beloved.
Here is sent the Spirit, one with son and Father,
fire of love's indwelling, bond of peace among us.

Hymn: 152 Joyful, joyful, we adore you

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

A welcome may be offered.

At 9:00am, the children and team attending Sunday School come forward and then the prayer is said by everyone.

Loving God,
We thank You for this opportunity to gather together in Your house.
We thank You that in our parish, young people have come to hear Your Word.
As they go now to Sunday School we pray that they may safely and confidently grow in faith and love.
In your name we pray, Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

God of compassion,
keep before us the love you have revealed in your Son,
who prayed even for his enemies.
In our words and deeds
help us to be like him, through whom we pray,
Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

A reading from the book of Genesis

Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But his brothers could not answer him, so dismayed were they at his presence. Then Joseph said to his brothers, "Come closer to me." And they came closer. He said, "I am your brother, Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. And now do not be distressed, or angry with yourselves, because you sold me here; for God sent me before you to preserve life. For the famine has been in the land these two years; and there are five more years in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant on earth, and to keep alive for you many survivors. So it was not you who sent me here, but God; he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt. Hurry and go up to my father and say to him, 'Thus says your son Joseph, God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down to me, do not delay. You shall settle in the land of Goshen, and you shall be near me, you and your children and your children's children, as well as your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. I will provide for you there—since there are five more years of famine to come—so that you and your household, and all that you have, will not come to poverty.' And he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them; and after that his brothers talked with him.

Hear the word of the Lord, Thanks be to God.

Psalm 37: 1 - 11, 40 - 41

The Response to the Psalm is: - The Lord is our strength and deliverance

1. Do not vie with the wicked:
or envy those that do wrong;
2. For they will soon wither like the grass:
and fade away like the green leaf.
3. Trust in the Lord and do good:
and you shall dwell in the land
and feed in safe pastures.....Response
4. Let the Lord be your delight:
and he will grant you your heart's desire.
5. Commit your way to the Lord:
trust him, and he will act.
6. He will make your righteousness shine as clear as the light:
and your innocence as the noonday.....Response
7. Be still before the Lord, and wait patiently for him:
do not be vexed when someone prospers,
when they put their evil purposes to work.

8. Let go of anger and abandon wrath:
let not envy move you to do evil.
9. For the wicked shall be cut down:
but those who wait for the Lord shall possess the land. Response
10. In a little while the ungodly shall be no more:
you will look for them in their place,
but they will not be found.
11. But the meek shall possess the land:
and enjoy the abundance of peace.....Response
40. Deliverance for the righteous shall come from the Lord:
he is their strength in time of trouble.
41. The Lord will help them and deliver them:
he will save them from the ungodly and deliver them,
because they come to him for refuge.....Response

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15: 35 - 50

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians

But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?" Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. And as for what you sow, you do not sow the body that is to be, but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body. Not all flesh is alike, but there is one flesh for human beings, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish. There are both heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one thing, and that of the earthly is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; indeed, star differs from star in glory. So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body. Thus it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven. What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL

Luke 6: 27 - 38

Alleluia, alleluia!

I give you a new commandment:
love one another as I have loved you.

Alleluia!

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke Chapter 6 beginning at the 27th verse.

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

“But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you. “If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful. “Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord, Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

A silence for reflection follows the sermon.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us pray for the world and for the church.

Loving Lord, we bring before you all clergy in this Diocese, the Archbishop, Regional Bishops, Local clergy and Fr. Daniel, Fr. Jim, Fr. Don, Canon Linda and Deacon Gay. As we come together, we ask your blessings on the Annual General Meeting, the reports given for the year past, the challenges for the year ahead and ask that you give us wisdom and strength to act as your agents in this Parish and in our community.

God of inspiration..... hear our prayer

Loving Lord, we bring before you all who have suffered from recent natural disasters. Let them feel your love and give them hope and courage for the future. Let them receive justice and compassion from Banks and Insurance companies and we give thanks for all who have helped with evacuation, clean up and care and nurture for those who have had to vacate their homes. We bring before you all who have had to leave their countries because of civil war and persecution, all victims of violence, abuse and neglect, may they recover their sense of worth and move forward knowing you are with them.

God of compassion.... hear our prayer

Loving Lord, we pray for Federal, State and Local members who make decisions on our behalf. Enlighten them to decide great issues that are to benefit all Australians, whatever their colour, creed or culture. Grant to those who seek election the spirit of truth and understanding, so that they may best serve the general good and be saved from false choices.

God of all wisdom.... hear our prayer

Loving Lord, we pray for all who are sick in mind, body or spirit, all those who are unemployed or homeless and can see no hope in their future. Give them comfort and sure confidence in you. Give all involved in healing ministries wisdom, skill and patience as they treat their patients in hospitals, nursing homes or in their homes.

God of all in need.... hear our prayer

Loving Lord, we give you thanks for the life and work of all those who have gone before us and we especially pray for Ethel Lowe, Margaret Wilson, and Marjorie Cameron, whose anniversaries occur this week. We bring before you all on our Parish prayer lists and particularly those we now name..... Give comfort to those who mourn, let them remember happy memories and know the consolation of your love. We pray that we, in time, will be united with them in your heavenly kingdom.

God of all healing.... hear our prayer

During the hymn the bread and wine are brought to the altar, the financial offerings of the people and donations towards the parish pantry are received.

HYMN: 674 Inspired by love and anger

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Communicant members of other Christian traditions are always welcome to receive communion. If you have not been admitted to Holy Communion, you are invited to come forward to receive a blessing. Children who receive a blessing are also given a sticker. If you do not want to receive the sacrament, you are free to remain in your seat.

At 9:00am during Communion The Anthem to be sung by the Choir during Communion is based on today's reading from Luke's gospel, chapter 6, and was written by American composer, Marty Haugen, for the Jubilee Year of Mercy, 2016, proclaimed by Pope Francis: "We want to live this year in the light of the Lord's words, 'Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.'"

*Be merciful, be merciful, just as God is merciful to you, Answer evil with good, answer hatred with love,
Be merciful as God is merciful.*

As a tender father, God is merciful;
as a loving mother, God is merciful,
slow to anger, and full of compassion.

Show compassion to the lost and forgotten;
give comfort to the sick and the dying,
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Share your riches with the hungry and homeless,
and advocate for those in prison.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

And, as Jesus taught us, love your enemies,
do good to the ones who hate you.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

Offer blessings to the ones who curse you,
and pray for the ones who hate you.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

And clothe yourselves in love and compassion,
be forgiving as God has forgiven you.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.

THE SENDING OUT OF GOD'S PEOPLE

Sentence:

Love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. You will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Luke 6: 35

A short silence is kept.

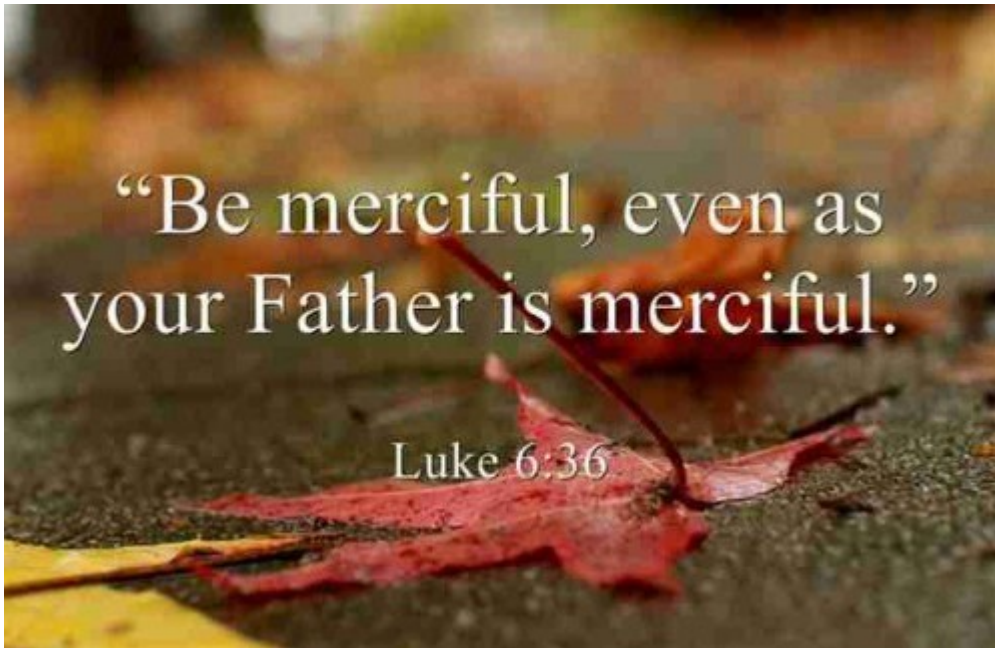

RECESSIONAL BLESSING

May the peace of God, our heavenly Father,
And the grace of Christ, the risen Son,
And the fellowship of God the Spirit
Keep our hearts and minds within His love.

And to Him be praise for His glorious reign;
From the depths of earth to the heights of heaven
We declare the name sing the glad refrain Christ eternal, the King of Kings.
